THE CHOATE MEDAL

ISSUED BY

THE CENTURY ASSOCIATION AND THE AMERICAN NUMISMATIC SOCIETY

HERBERT ADAMS, SCULPTOR

THE JOSEPH HODGES CHOATE MEMORIAL MEDAL

NUMBER ONE OF A SERIES OF MEDALS COMMEMORATIVE OF MEN DISTINGUISHED FOR PUBLIC SERVICE

The Century Association, having decided to issue a series of commemorative medals in honor of men who have been especially distinguished for public service, in the arts, in letters and in other notable activities, has appointed a committee with power to act. It is in pursuance of this determination that the first of the proposed medals is now to be issued.

In 1919 an exhibition of medals was held in the gallery of the Century Association where it attracted a great deal of attention to this field of sculpture. For this exhibition The American Numismatic Society loaned a considerable number of plaques and medals from its collection. This exhibition constituted a strong argument in support of the idea that a series of Century Association medals should be undertaken, and that these medals be made available to the members through subscriptions.

It is especially fitting that the first medal of the series should commemorate the public services of so great an American as Joseph Hodges Choate. His singular ability in many fields, his charming personality, and the very great measure of accomplishment which rewarded his efforts, mark him as one of the most gifted men that America has produced. "Patriot, Ambassador, Jurist, Orator," the medal rightly proclaims him.

The design of the medal was entrusted to Mr. Herbert Adams, one of our most distinguished sculptors, President of the National Academy of Design, 1917 to 1919, member of the Commission of Fine Arts and a personal friend of Mr. Choate. Mr. Adams' work for the Library of Congress in Washington, St. Bartholomew's Church in New York, the Bryant Statue in Bryant Park, and many statues and memorials throughout the country testify to his eminence as a sculptor. The medal which he has designed is a work of remarkable artistic quality and a very beautiful presentation of the personality of Mr. Choate.

The Committee of the Century Association desires to extend the privilege of subscribing for this medal to other societies of which Mr. Choate was an honored member. Invitations to subscribe were extended to and accepted by the Bar Association, and the Harvard Club, and the privilege of subscribing will be further extended to a limited list of collectors, amateurs and friends of Mr. Choate.

The Committee of the Century Association has been glad to avail itself of the kind cooperation of The American Numismatic Society in publishing the medal and takes this opportunity to express its cordial appreciation of its helpfulness, and has authorized The American Numismatic Society to issue this circular and to accept subscriptions for the medals.

The Committee on the Publication of Medals of The American Numismatic Society has accepted the invitation of the Century Association to cooperate in publication of the Choate Medal, and has much pleasure in inviting subscriptions for the medal from its members, from the members of the Century Association, from the Bar Association, the Harvard Club, and from a limited list of collectors, amateurs and friends of Mr. Choate.

The medal is an unusually beautiful example of medallic art and will be much prized by its possessors on account of its historical importance, its subject, and its very exceptional artistic merit.

Copies of the medal will be issued in silver and bronze. The price of the medal in SILVER is $10.00, and that of the BRONZE medal, $5.00.

Subscriptions stating the number desired in each metal, accompanied by checks to the order of The American Numismatic Society, should be addressed to The American Numismatic Society, Broadway and 156th Street, New York City.

Choate Medal

In 1919 an exhibition of medals was held in the Gallery of the Century Association where it attracted a great deal of attention to this field of sculpture. For this exhibition the American Numismatic Society loaned a considerable number of plaques and medals from its Cabinets. As an outcome of the exhibition, a proposal was made that these two organizations should collaborate in publishing a medal, the subscription of which should be open to their members.

It is particularly fitting that the medal decided upon should commemorate the public services of so great an American as Joseph H. Choate. His singular ability in many fields, his charming personality, and the very great measure of accomplishment which rewarded his efforts, mark him as one of the most gifted men America has produced. "Patriot, Ambassador, Jurist, Orator" our medal rightly proclaims him, but does it not seem that the winning of the admiration and affection of the American people was his greatest achievement?

The design of the medal was entrusted to an artist who had known Mr. Choate intimately - Herbert Adams, National Academician and President of the National Academy of Design from 1917 to 1919. His work for the Library of Congress and St. Bartholomew's Church of New York, as well as the statues and memorials throughout the country, testify to his eminence as a sculptor. The medal which he has designed is an exquisite presentation of the personality of a great man.

It has been thought fitting by the Committee of the Century Association, with the concurrence of the American Numismatic Society, to extend the privilege of subscribing for this medal to other bodies of which Mr. Choate was an honored member. Invitations to participate were received and accepted by the Bar Association, the Harvard Club and the Lotus Club.

Copies of the medal will be issued in silver and bronze. The price of the silver will be fixed at $10.00, and those of the bronze at $5.00. Subscriptions, stating the number desired in each metal, accompanied by cheques to the order of the American Numismatic Society, ~~Broadway~~ should be addressed to the American Numismatic Society, Broadway and 156th Street, New York, N.Y.

Dear Sirs:

Your letter of January 13th was duly received referring to the Choate Medal of the Century Club. Various minor matters have prevented more prompt action but I have today forwarded to Dr. Kunz a draft of the circular to be issued by the American Numismatic Society as approved by the Century Club Committee and requested him to ask the American Numismatic Society to take the necessary steps immediately for obtaining subscriptions to, and for the publications and issuance of, the medals. You will doubtless hear from them at an early date. It is understood of course that you are to strike the medals from the dies which you have prepared.

I remain

Very truly yours,

Dear Sir:

In connection with the circular for the Month ended, the subscription for which the members of the Lotos Club are privileged to share, will you kindly inform me the number of members on your list.

As the circular will be printed on a sheet
8 1/2 in. long by 6 1/2 in. wide, and fold in the centre to fit an envelope 4 3/8 in. by 6 1/2 in., I suggest that you let us furnish circulars and envelopes at the same time, as the latter is an unusual size and hardly likely to be carried by your Club stationery.

The only question in this connection then is - can these be fitted to your address-card or other cards of standing addressed?

Also, will you kindly advise me as to whether you can use the envelopes with the circulars enclosed?

A prompt answer will be appreciated.

Very truly yours,

Secretary

Dear Sir:

In connection with the circular for the Choate medal, the subscription for which the members of the Harvard Club are privileged to share, will you kindly inform me the number of members on your list.

As the circular will be printed on a sheet  $6\frac{1}{2}$  in. long by  $6\frac{1}{2}$  in. wide, and fold in the centre to fit an envelope  $4\frac{3}{8}$  in. by  $6\frac{1}{2}$  in., I suggest that you let us furnish circulars and envelopes at the same time, as the latter is an unusual size and hardly likely to be carried in your Club stationery.

The question in this connection is - can these be fitted to your addressograph or other means of printing addresses?

Will you kindly advise me as to whether or not we can include us with the circulars printed?

A prompt answer will be appreciated.

Mr. Walter Gillies,

New York.

Dear Mr. Gillies:-

I am enclosing herewith a copy for a folder of another model. The folder is to be a usual 4 page, 8 1/2 inch by 6 inches size. The lettering will have to be of a point to permit the printing of the entire copy. There is no great economizing the space by printing the names of the Committee in two or three lines at the end rather than as they are typed.

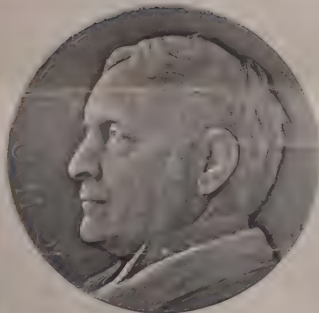

With regard to the cut, you will note that the photograph accompanying appears to be from the sculptor's model. I think better results could be obtained from the model direct, and if you will communicate with Mr. Herbert Adams, the Sculptor, 135 West 11th Street, (Phone, Chelsea 2125), he will furnish you a specimen copy from which the photograph can be made. It is desired to have the cut printed on a pure white paper.

I would be glad to have any suggestions you may have regarding anything we can do to make this a very attractive folder.

I should like to see a proof of the cut when it is ready before you proceed with printing, and if you will telephone me I will call for it and take it with the Century Association Committee any points which may have arisen in this connection.

Very truly yours,

Secretary.

My dear Sir:-

Your letter of January 26th addressed to the Secretary of this Association, was by him referred to me for attention.

Thank you for the information as to the size of the envelopes and circulars. We can address the envelopes in our addressing machine, but the matter should not be enclosed in the envelopes. If it is enclosed, the printing of the machine is very imperfect.

We would suggest that you send us the envelopes and circulars separate. We can then run the envelopes through the machine and enclose the circulars ourselves.

We shall need about 2700 of each.

In reply to your letter of January 26th I beg to say that the Harvard Club will be glad to allow you the use of its addressograph in order to circularize its members with reference to the Choate medal. I assume, of course, that the envelopes will be sent to the club sealed and stamped all ready to be mailed as soon as they have been run through the machine. I shall instruct the clerical force at the club to expect the envelopes shortly.

This permission is granted of course on the assumption that the letter will in no way be an appeal for funds but will simply give the members of the Harvard Club an opportunity to subscribe for a medal if they so desire.

This is to confirm our telephone conversation which was to the effect that we will be glad to supply the bronze Choate medals in lots of five hundred for $1.50 each, two hundred for $1.65 each and one hundred for $2. each. We will agree to supply you with these medals in fine silver for the price of $4.75 each.

We should think that it would be advantageous to all concerned for us to strike up a reasonable quantity of the bronze medals and have them ready for immediate shipment when a fair amount of individual applications had been received by you. This in order to avoid any possible dissatisfactions in deliveries.

We wish to give your requirements the best of care and would be glad indeed to have your suggestion.

Mr. Edwin P. Doe

American Humane Society

Dear Mr. Doe:

Dr. Kunz did not like the "lighting" of the medal which was made direct from the medal and preferred the former lighting. I therefore had a new plate made.

Dr. Kunz spoke of having an edition of several thousand and prefers the style represented by the proof. Will you please agree upon the edition with him, and let me know when returns the proof.

The print directly on the laid paper will give a stronger more readable impression than if printed on the coated paper as heretofore.

Envelopes can probably be made by the time
the printing is completed.

The medals as you see are printed on a green, dark brown ink, on "creamy" coated paper.
Hoping you will be pleased with the result.
Sincerely,
Walter Gibbs

Mr. Walter Gilliss
160 Fifth Avenue
New York City

Dear Mr. Gilliss:

I am returning the proof received this noon. I note that Dr. King prefers the cut made from the artist's model rather than that made from the model - and this is O.K.

I also note on the last page several necessary corrections in red ink. There is a notation in black at the bottom of the page reading THREE SEVENTEEN EIGHTS $8.00, which I do not understand. I presume that this is intended to bring out the price by an increase in the size of the type. If I am correct in this, that is all right.

Regarding the size of the folders and your statement that we could probably save envelopes same at the time the printing was completed, I beg to say that we already have the envelopes addressed and stamped. I enclose a blank one for your guidance. From it you will see that the maximum length of the circular must not be greater than 8 7/8 inches. My letter of January 18th mentioned the length as 8 1/2 inches, but it can be extended 3/8 of an inch more.

Next, as to cost - we desire eleven thousand (11,000) of these circulars; and while we want them to look well, we also want to keep the cost within reasonable limit.

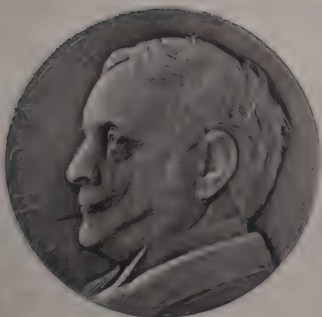

Will you kindly telephone me in the morning to discuss this and any other points which may come up?

As regards the folders delivered after having been folded twice with the front page folded in and to fit the size of the envelope. You will see the necessity of having these folds absolutely accurate.

Although it has been through no fault of yours, there has been so much delay in getting this circular printed that I would appreciate any expedition you can give to the matter.

Awaiting your telephone call tomorrow morning,
Very truly yours,

MEDAL COMMEMORATING THE VISIT OF
MARSHAL FOCH TO THE UNITED STATES
MCMXXI

DESIGNED BY ROBERT AITKEN, N. A.

MEDALS COMMEMORATIVE OF MEN DISTINGUISHED FOR PUBLIC SERVICE

The Century Association, having decided to issue a series of commemorative medals in honor of men who have been especially distinguished for public service, in the arts, in letters and in other notable activities, has appointed a committee with power to act. It is in pursuance of this determination that the first of the proposed medals is now to be issued.

In 1919 an exhibition of medals was held in the gallery of the Century Association where it attracted a great deal of attention to this field of sculpture. For this exhibition The American Numismatic Society loaned a considerable number of plaques and medals from its collection. This exhibition constituted a strong argument in support of the idea that a series of Century Association medals should be undertaken, and that these medals be made available to the members through subscriptions.

It is especially fitting that the first medal of the series should commemorate the public services of so great an American as Joseph Hodges Choate. His singular ability in many fields, his charming personality, and the very great measure of accomplishment which rewarded his efforts, mark him as one of the most gifted men that America has produced. "Patriot, Ambassador, Jurist, Orator," the medal rightly proclaims him.

The design of the medal was entrusted to Mr. Herbert Adams, one of our most distinguished sculptors, President of the National Academy of Design, 1917 to 1919, member of the United States Commission of the Fine Arts and a personal friend of Mr. Choate. organization to whose invitation the presence of our guest is directly due. The Coat-of-Arms of France and America occupy the field providing background for the figure.

This medal was designed by Mr. Robert Aitken, N. A., President of the National Sculpture Society. Mr. Aitken's work has covered many of the other branches of sculpture as well as that of the medal. Recently, the design of the half-dollar to commemorate the centennial of the admission of the State of Missouri was completed by him. Previously he had made designs for the Watrous Medal for Sculpture awarded by the National Academy of Design, and for the Panama-Pacific Fifty-dollar Slug.

The first copy in gold is to be presented to Marshal Foch. After this has been struck, copies in silver and bronze will be offered to our members and to the members of the Institut Français aux Etats-Unis, and the Alliance Française.

The silver medals will be sold for Ten Dollars each and the bronze at Five Dollars. Orders for the number desired should be sent on the accompanying cards together with cheque, made payable to The American Numismatic Society. No orders will be received after December 15th except those from abroad under a date prior to December 15th.

Dear Dr. Kunz:

The delivery of the folders for the Cheate medal is promised in the early part of next week.

From my conversations with you, I have understood that you desire the membership of the Century Association to receive theirs first. If I am correct in this, kindly advise to whom I shall deliver, the number of circulars they need, and the date on which they shall be mailed. The much depends on having a definite reply to this that I trust you will make every effort to obtain one.

We have the envelopes for the Maryland Club addressed and stamped; and those for our own members are also ready. The Bar Association has promised to enclose its quota. Consequently, everything is now awaiting word as to when the Century Association will send out their circulars. I hope you will be able to let me have a prompt response as my illness has already delayed the circular unduly.

Very truly yours,

has been maintained by a portion of the proceeds from the annual sale of Christmas Seals.

The total net income of the State Committee during the past 14 years was $556,626. This sum came from three sources as follows: From the Russell Sage Foundation $275,585; from the State Committee's portion of the sale of Christmas Seals, $272,711; and from other minor sources of income, $11,329. Mr. Kingsbury called attention to the fact that while the State Committee is to serve as the operating agency for the up-State tuberculosis demonstrations to be financed by the Milbank Foundation (see page 21 of this issue of the News) the funds for this work will be expended in the localities where the demonstrations are to be carried on and will not be available for the general work of the State Committee on Tuberculosis and Public Health as had been the case with the grants formerly made by the Russell Sage Foundation.

$1,852,000 Raised From Seals

Mr. Folks in commenting upon the results of the Christmas Seal sales since 1909, called attention to the fact that $1,852,749 had been raised by the sale of Christmas Seals in the State during the past sixteen years, that $1,422,979 had been kept by local committees to be expended locally and that $274,141 had been sent to the State Committee to use in the promotion of the State-wide seal sales of which local committees had been the main beneficiaries, and in the general programs of work of the State Committee. Of the latter sum $168,510 was expended for the general work of the State Committee and $105,631 in promoting the State-wide seal sales.

Since 1908 the National Tuberculosis Association has received a total of $155,628 from the New York State Seal campaigns.

Mr. Folks also said that the policy of the State Committee in steadily pushing the work of local organizations into every county in the State, so that all excepting two are now organized, while necessary for the best interests of the tuberculosis movement, had nevertheless resulted in reducing the State Committee's income from the organized territory to practically nothing, and that the State Committee must therefore look to the local organizations to meet the entire expense of maintaining the general program of work of the State Committee.

1923 Budget Approved

The budget under which the State Committee is now operating and that proposed for 1923 were presented to the conference, explained in detail, and unanimously approved. The need for two additional lines of service by the State Committee, if given adequate funds to finance them, were considered. One is the employment of a nutrition specialist to supervise nutrition activities now being carried on by local committees, to hold institutes for the training of nutrition workers and to secure the taking over by the duly constituted local authorities of nutrition work after a demonstration of its value shall have been made in various localities. The other desirable line of work is conducting occupational therapy demonstrations to introduce the "work cure" into small hospitals on the circuit rider plan. There are five groups of two hospitals each where such work is needed and should be undertaken.

The general discussion which ensued regarding the State Committee's budget, the various services needed and the percentage of the seal proceeds to be sent to the State and National Associations, was earnest, thorough and large-minded.

Unity of Tuberculosis Movement

Dr. Charles J. Hatfield, Managing Director of the National Tuberculosis Association, in opening the discussion said that the payment by the local committees of 17 per cent of the gross proceeds, in addition to the cost of the campaign supplies is exceptionally small as compared with the percentages paid by local tuberculosis organizations in other states, and stressed the importance of local committees giving adequate support to the State and National Associations.

He drew a convincing picture of the unity of the tuberculosis movement, of the interdependence of the local, state and national organizations upon one another and of the dependence of all upon the unique financial and educational device of the Christmas seal.

Who Were Present

Representatives of many local committees took part in the discussion, among them the following: Willard W. Seymour, Syracuse, President, Onondaga County Tuberculosis Association; S. R. Leonard, Kenwood, member, Board of Directors, Madison County Tuberculosis Committee; F. W. Olmstead, Executive Secretary, Nassau County Association; Mrs. Henry Bacon, Goshen, Orange County Tuberculosis Committee; B. B. Burritt, Yonkers; Hugo A. Brown, Executive Secretary, Buffalo Tuberculosis Association; Rev. J. H. MacConnell, Norwich, President Chenango County Tuberculosis Committee; Mrs. L. E. Edgecomb, President, Cortland County Tuberculosis Committee; G. Wm. McEwan, Campaign Chairman, Albany County Tuberculosis Committee; Dr. Wm. H. Ross, President, Suffolk County Tuberculosis Committee; Dr. Mary Gage-Day, Secretary, Ulster County Committee; Mrs. A. C. Rust, Vice-President, Poughkeepsie Tuberculosis Committee; Walter P. Warren, Jr., President, Rensselaer County Tuberculosis Committee; Hon. Julius Frank, St. Lawrence County Committee, and Mrs. Fred Hawley, President, Westchester County Committee. Mr. B. G. Eaves of the National Tuberculosis Association also spoke.

The action finally taken, fixing the percentage to be paid by local committees in the 1922 sale at 17 per cent, local committees to pay the cost of campaign supplies, was unanimous, the motion being made by Isaac Adler, President, Tuberculosis Association of Rochester and Monroe County. The same was true of the decision to fix $500,000 as the goal of the 1922 campaign. Representatives of several committees expressed themselves as ready to pay in advance for their campaign supplies in order that the State Committee should not be obliged to assume the full financial obligation involved in their advance purchase.

In addition to those mentioned the following were among those present: Dr. William E. Lawson, of Albany; Miss Laura P. Vogel of Belmont; Mrs. R. R. Edwards, Lisle; Miss Mary Carter Nelson, Binghamton; Dr. and Mrs. C. A. Greenleaf, Olean; Mr. C. A. Putnam, Brocton; Mrs. J. Sloat Fassett, Elmira; Miss Ruth McKechnie, Poughkeepsie; Miss Nellie Casey, Ticonderoga; Mrs. Nellie E. Warner, Adams; Mrs. Henry Burden, Chazy; Miss Helen Cotter, Oneida; Mrs. Ethel M. Hendriksen, Rochester, Prof. N. B. Alter, Neliston; Miss Frances Barbour, Mincola; Mrs. Frank J. Tone, Niagara Falls; Miss Lucy Carlie Watson and Mrs. Harriott P. Churchill, Utica; Mrs. Minnie E. Freeman, Syracuse; Dr. F. R. Wright, Clifton Springs; Miss Mary Van Zile, Canandaigua; Miss Anna G. Murphy, Goshen; Mr. E. W. Wilcox and Miss Grace H. Gillett of Albion; Miss Nina V. Short and Miss Marie Goulet of Otsego County; Rev. Louis J. Johnston, Patchogue; Dr. W. A. Moulton, Candor; Mrs. C. N. Reed, Kingston; Mrs. Henry P. Griffin and Mrs. Susan M. Baker, White Plains; Miss Anne Penton, Poughkeepsie; Dr. W. J. Vogeler, Dr. Sidney Beckwith and Miss E. M. Bogardus of Yonkers; Miss Linn W. Pierce, Carthage; Et. Rev. Mer. J. L. Reilly, Schenectady; Dr. Charles Stover, Amsterdam; Dr. William A. Howe, Albany; Harvey Dee Brown, Miss Frances H. Mayer, and Mrs. Ruth B. Harter of the staff of the State Committee; and Frederick D. Hopkins of the National Tuberculosis Association.

Medal of Joseph H. Choate

The Century Association and the American Numismatic Society have issued a Joseph Hodges Choate Memorial Medal as the first of a series commemorative of men distinguished for public service.

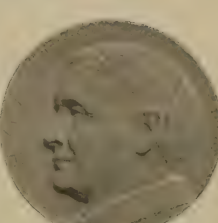

It is especially fitting that the first medal of the series should commemorate the public services of so great an American as Mr. Choate. His singular ability in many fields, his charming personality, and the very great measure of accomplishments which rewarded his efforts, mark him as one of the most gifted men that America has produced. "Patriot, Ambassador, Jurist, Orator," the medal rightly proclaims him.

The medal was designed by Herbert Adams, a distinguished sculptor, President of the National Academy of Design, 1917 to 1919, member of the Commission of Fine Arts and a personal friend of Mr. Choate. The Committee of the Century Association has extended the privilege of subscribing for this medal to other organizations of which Mr. Choate was a member; these include the State Charities Aid Association, of which Mr. Choate was President for sixteen years.

A copy of this medal in silver was presented to Miss Louisa Lee Schuyler by several of her colleagues in the Board of Managers on the occasion of the fiftieth anniversary of the Association, May 11.

Copies of the medal are issued in silver at $10 and in bronze at $5. Subscriptions stating the number desired in each metal, accompanied by checks to the order of The American Numismatic Society, should be addressed to the American Numismatic Society, Broadway and 156th Street, New York City.

Dear Dr. Kunz:-

I am submitting herewith a statement regarding the Choate Medal. You will notice that the two medals delivered to Mrs. Choate together with two bought by The American Numismatic Society and seven silver and eight bronze medals being held for instructions from the Century Association Committee have all been reckoned at cost.

The proceeds total $427.07. According to our arrangement half of this goes to The American Numismatic Society. The balance, less the cost of the seven silver and ten bronze medals mentioned above, goes to the Century Association.

If you will submit this report to the proper authorities and assure me of its acceptability, I will have a cheque drawn for this amount.

Very sincerely yours,

Sydney P. Noe

Secretary.

Dear Dr. Kunz:

I am enclosing a carbon copy of my letter to the Medallie Art Company regarding the filling of future orders for the Choate medal. You will recall that, unlike the other medals issued by us, there was no date set after which further orders would not be filled. I suppose we shall have members of both organizations desiring single copies from time to time; this need not interfere with the settlement proposed in the statement you have already received. The amount due the Century Association can be supplemented after an interval.

Please advise me regarding the names of those to whom complimentary copies of the medal <sup>are</sup> were sent, so that our records here may be complete.

Very truly yours,

Gentlemen:

I enclose, herewith, labels for two additional bronze Choate medals.

I would suggest that it would be advantageous for you to strike up at least ten more of these bronze medals, numbering them from the point at which we left off. I think you still have one unsold silver medal; and if this is the case, and it would be at all convenient to strike additional silver ones at the same time as the bronze, perhaps four more silver ones would meet our needs for a considerable period.

These can either be held at your office, as are those awaiting delivery instructions from the Century Association, or sent to the Museum here, as you prefer.

Please let me hear if the above suggestion is satisfactory to you.

Very truly yours,

Secretary

Gentlemen:

I enclose, herewith, letters for the additional brass plates needed.

I would suggest that it would be advantageous for you to deliver by at least Jan. 20th, one of these brass plates, covering them from the point at which we left off. I think you will have one small silver medal; and it will be the same, and it will be at all recommended to strike small and silver coins at the same time as the others, because they were silver and could not and need the same machinery.

There are a few as told at your office, as are those awaiting delivery instructions from the Century
Association, or sent to the Museum here, as you prefer.

Please let us hear if the above suggestion is sat-
